BOARD OF EDUCATION MEMBERS: QUALIFICATIONS

A Board of Education member of the Red Hook Central School District must meet the following qualifications:

a. A citizen of the United States
b. Eighteen (18) years of age or older
c. Able to read and write
d. A legal resident of the district one (1) year prior to the election
e. Cannot be an employee of the Red Hook Central School District
f. The only member of his/her family or household on the Red Hook Central School District Board
g. May not simultaneously hold another, incompatible public office. That is, a school board member may not serve in any of the following positions while a member of the School Board:

- District Superintendent
- Town/Municipal Supervisor
- Municipal Clerk, however, may be a school district clerk in another school district
- Tax Collector
- Treasurer
- Member of the Board of Education for a private school located in the district
- County District Attorney
- Any position which is employed by the Board of Education
- Any other position which is or becomes prohibited by law, or which is determined by a Court, the Commissioner of Education, or other body of competent jurisdiction to be incompatible with that of a School Board Member

h. Must not have been removed from a school district within one (1) year preceding the date of election to the Board. New York State Education Law explicitly prohibits any person who has been removed from a Board of Education by the Commissioner or by any Board of Education during the year preceding an election from qualifying as a matter of law,

1st Reading: 11/10/04
2nd Reading: 11/23/04
ADOPT: 12/9/04