COMMUNITY RELATIONS GOALS

The Board believes that the responsibility for education is shared by the family, schools and other organizations in the community, and is committed to keeping open the channels of communication between the school system and district residents. The Board encourages communication between residents, parents and the staff of the schools as well as community participation at board meetings.

NOTE: New

1st Reading 1/13/88
2nd Reading & Adoption 2/10/88