RED HOOK CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

POLICY# 1230

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION AT BOARD MEETINGS

The Board encourages public participation at Board meetings. At each meeting, the president will ask for brief comments from the public. Persons wishing to speak must identify themselves, any organization they may be representing at the meeting and topic they wish to discuss. Comments should be kept as brief as possible and relate to school matters.

The Board President will be responsible for recognizing speakers, for maintaining proper order, and for setting and adhering to any time limits.
