

Dear Red Hook Central School District Community:

Earlier this morning, the Red Hook Central School District received notification of a positive staff COVID-19 case at Red Hook High School.

Due to the timing of the notification and to allow for contact tracing, the Red Hook High School will pivot to remote learning for all students for today, Monday, December 21st.

Further information will be sent out later today.