

Educators' EAP | World Tragedies Have an Impact on Us – Turn to Your EAP for Support

Educators' EAP <clientservice@theeap.com>

Thu 10/12/2023 1:00 PM

To:Elena Maskell <emaskell@rhcsd.org>

CAUTION: This email originated from outside of the organization and may contain harmful content. If the sender name matches district personnel do not respond to the message and immediately notify the IT department.

Please Share with Your Employees!

Hello,

In recent days, we all have been confronted with news of the conflict between Israel and Hamas. You may be experiencing a heightened level of sadness, grief, stress, or anxiety related to this.

Remember that your employee assistance program (EAP) is here to provide support. The EAP counseling line is available 24/7/365 for confidential, in-the-moment support at 800-252-4555.

For additional information, resources, travel advisories, and security alerts, please refer to the U.S. Department of State website.

Sincerely,

Gordon Bell
President

www.theEAP.com/Educators-EAP
800-252-4555

Clients of ESI Employee Assistance Group have received this email to relay information about the employee assistance benefits for your organization. The EAP is a confidential benefit available to you, your employees and their family members.