Hello,

For many people, Covid-19 is kicking up a lot of issues ranging from financial strain and family dynamics to stress, depression, and grief. Worries and problems often have a tendency to grow when we keep them to ourselves.

Your EAP has a variety of excellent no-cost counseling services available to you and your family! Whatever the difficulty you may face, our experienced counselors are available day and night to help – simply make a call to our helpline – 800.252.4555.

Click here for a flyer to tell you more about these great services. Be sure to share this benefit with your family, too!
